

Dear student,

We are happy to welcome you here and hope you will make the most of this experience to learn a language and have fun.

We offer you dynamic classes, various activities each day and the opportunity to have a unique experience with your new friends from all over the world.

Here are a few tips to help you get your stay off to a great start:

- Everyone needs some time to adapt. You can feel at home here. If you have any problems, the whole ALPADIA team is available to help you. Do not hesitate to ask us questions, we are there to answer them.
- In order to make the most of the camp, we strongly recommend speaking the studied language as much as possible. This will help you make significant progress.

The camp staff do their best to ensure your safety and wellbeing during your language course abroad. However, in the interests of the group, a few rules must be respected. We shall not tolerate:

- Repeated violations of camp rules and/or events that may jeopardize the security and/or wellbeing of other students or staff members at the camp (e.g. lateness to classes, activities or meals)
- Theft and vandalism
- Use of tobacco, alcohol, drugs or other illegal substances
- Students leaving the campus at night or non-authorized room changes
- Visits to rooms of the opposite sex by day or by night
- Students leaving the campus without giving prior notice to the camp manager (even when the parents have signed the authorization form to leave the campus)
- Physical or verbal abuse against other students, teachers or members of staff
- Any infraction of the applicable laws of the country

“If I don’t respect these conditions, I understand that I might be expelled. In case of serious violation of the camp rules, my parents or legal guardians will be contacted immediately and arrangements will be made to send me back to my country or region as soon as possible, at my parents’ expense. I will be taken back to the airport and repatriated. From then on, ALPADIA declines all liability concerning my person and no refund can be requested.”
