What is the main focus of this course?

- To improve communication skills using English language collocations and functional language in real-life situations (for example, idioms and phrasal verbs).
- To practise speaking English with students of similar ages from all over the world.
- To experience the lifestyle of a London family.
- To provide a rich, cultural experience of London and British life through an exciting selection of trips and social activities in different seasons.
- To focus on your groups' specific needs and objectives (for example, academic purposes or English plus football, music or art).
