

Kings London

The modern new cafeteria

The main College building

Kings London is located in the safe, attractive suburb of Beckenham, only 20 minutes by train from Central London. The main College has been transformed by a modern 'link' building, which houses a new reception area and cafeteria, and connects the main teaching blocks. Our annexe building, two minutes' walk away, has a large, modern Computer Learning Centre and spacious classrooms with interactive whiteboards. Students also benefit from lovely College gardens, which can be accessed from the main cafeteria.
